

ARTICLE APPEARED
ON PAGE 2THE BOSTON GLOBE
24 January 1978IN BRIEF*Pressure on Turner

WASHINGTON — President Jimmy Carter is under heavy pressure from the intelligence community and the Pentagon to fire CIA Director Stansfield Turner because of heavy-handed tactics, informed sources said yesterday. The White House said, "No one wants Turner out," but intelligence sources told United Press International that they understood Turner has agreed to go if he is named to an "equally prestigious" post.